If you like, please share!!

So when leaving the hostel around 8pm I took the walk to High Street Kensington tube station. At 12 I'd feel comfortable taking this route after dark.

Highly suggest downloading the free Tube Map app.

Private double rooms are available from £75 but get this Location isn't half bad unimpressed with the famous portrait of the 'Girl with a Pearl Earring'.

But my favourite? Many visitors to the composed of hundreds of tiny images of London

Downstairs in the pool room, an incredible collage of Queen Elizabeth I dominates the pool room,

You'll have to keep your eyes open, and raised to the ceilings, to capture the alternative and colourful piece

Holland House, inspiring within its walls heated discussions ranging from nature, to philosophy to politics.

In the 19th century, writers such as Charles Dickens, Sir Walter Scott and John Allen were known to visit history of the iconic building entirely

The incredible renovation of the Grade 1 listed building by Safestay Hostels has done well to respect the not making this up!) for 93 years until inherited by the Edwardes family in 1721.

After the death of Sir Walter Cope, the castle was inherited by his daughter and son-in-law, Isabel and son, Henry Frederick, Prince of Wales. King William III also resided at the renamed Holland House

July 1614.

Safestay London Holland Park hostel resides in the East Wing of a 17th century Grade 1

UK HOSTELS